

The wire cut into the bone and partially severed a tendon which runs down the front of the limb. Access to horse was limited so treatments were approximately once a week. With daily applications, this would take 30 days. Currently, this horse is competing successfully in Stadium Jumping.

July 28 2011

August 17 2011

August 19 2011

September 9 2011

October 6 2011